September 23, 1964

I think this is advisable from the standpoint that it would be well to get across the message to foreign audiences that the FBI worked closely with the Warren Commission and performed the authoritative investigation upon which the findings are based.

From a public relations standpoint this puts the Bureau on the side of right and will minimize any public feeling that the FBI was remiss in this matter or had something to hide.

A... Belmont

AHB:hmm

FBI
61 OCT 16 1964